and "OTHER"

Jeff & Ann VanderMeer

We are pleased to welcome a husband and wife duo who literally wrote the book on "weird." Jeff and Ann VanderMeer recently published the critically acclaimed anthology, The Weird: A Compendium of Strange and Dark Stories and Best American Fantasy. World Fantasy Award winner Jeff VanderMeer's fiction has been published in over twenty countries and he recently signed a three-book agreement with Farrar, Straus & Giroux (New York). Ann VanderMeer, a publisher and editor, is only the second female editor of the venerable horror magazine, Weird Tales. She is the founder of Buzzcity Press and she and her husband are currently compiling an anthology on feminist speculative fiction. Both have won numerous prestigious awards for their original fiction and anthologies.
