V. RESEARCH ACTIVITY

A. Interests and Specialties:

Motherhood and Crime, Justice; Gender and Crime; Violence Against Women; Pedagogy

B. Current Projects:

1. I am revising my "New Momism" paper that I just presented at the M.O.M. Conference in February 2017.
2. I will soon start analyzing the data from the focus groups and interviews I conducted for the Work Design grant. The goal is a presentation and a publication from just the focus group data, and then mixed methods analyses presentations and publications.
3. I am presenting a paper at the American Society of Criminology conference on the film "Bad Moms" and hope to turn that into a publication.
4. I am revising "The Constructions of Mothers in Female Circumcision Eradication Efforts," a talk I gave at the MIRCI conference in October 2017, for publication.

G. Research Grant Activity:

2017. "EAGER: Collaborative Research: Exploring the Effects of Academic Climate and Social Networks on the Persistence of Sexual and Gender Minority STEM Undergraduates." I am PI on this USF collaborative grant (with the University of Connecticut as primary institution). I will be responsible for conducting and analyzing interviews with STEM undergraduates. Submitted to NSF in June, 2017. $126,009. Full grant is approximately $300,000.

2016. "Academic Persistence in STEM: Effects of Social Networks and STEM Program Culture for Sexual and Gender Minority STEM Undergraduates." I am PI on this USF collaborative grant (with the University of Connecticut as primary institution). I will be responsible for conducting and analyzing interviews with STEM undergraduates. Submitted to NSF in September, 2016, $421,967. Full grant is approximately $880,000. Not funded, though ranked "Highly Competitive."

2016. "The University of Central Florida Violence Against Women Consortium." Principal Investigator is Catherine Kaukinen. My role is as a co-PI of the USF sub-contract, which involves helping to lead the Consortium's efforts to research sexual violence and to monitor the Consortium's engagement in qualitative research. Submitted to NIJ in April, 2016. Not funded. Only 1 grant was funded in the country, and ours was rated highly.

2015. "Effect of Program Culture and Social Networks on the Retention and Degree Attainment of Sexual and Gender Minority STEM Undergraduates." Principal Investigator is Chrystal Smith. My role is as a Co-PI, and I will be responsible for faculty interviews. Submitted to NSF in September, 2015, $887,855. Not funded, but ranked "Competitive" and we were encouraged to reapply by Program Officer.

2014. "Advancing Women-Faculty in Engineering (AWE)." This project seeks to improve the retention and promotion of women STEM faculty at USF. Principle Investigator is Grisselle Centeno. My role is to serve as co-PI and manage the assessment research. Submitted to NSF in October, 2014, $749,982. Not funded.

2014. "Enhancing REACH: Initiatives to ADVANCE Non-Clinical Women Faculty in the Basic Sciences at Colleges of Medicine." This project seeks to use mentoring, networking and grant review panels to retain and promote basic science women faculty in colleges of medicine at USF and Drexel University. Principle

Investigator is Catherine Lynch, USF Morsani College of Medicine. I will serve as Senior Personnel and coordinate the assessment research. Submitted to NSF in October, 2014, $618,914. Not funded.

2014-2017. “Assessing Work Design Theory.” This research grant is designed to test work design theory as an approach to understanding women STEM faculty experiences. Principle Investigator is Tammy Allen. I will serve as Co-PI and coordinate the focus group research. Submitted to NSF in September, 2014, $479,962. Funded at $380,000.

2013. “Implementing Work Design Theory to Advance the Success of Women Faculty at the University of South Florida.” Leader of Work Group revising the 2011 Advance-IT submission to NSF. This $4.5 million grant proposal involved partnerships with four colleges, five USF offices, faculty and administrators across the campus, including in STEM, social and behavioral sciences, and public health, and faculty experts across the country. Grant proposal deferred by USF administration.

2012. “Advancing Women-Faculty in Engineering, Science and Math At The University of South Florida (AWESM-USF).” Submitted to the National Science Foundation as part of the ADVANCE initiative, $749,840. Not funded.

2011. “Research Collaboration: Advance-IT, Florida!” (Kathy Borman, PI; I wrote the Project Narrative.) Submitted to the National Science Foundation as part of the ADVANCE initiative, $5,686,572. Not funded.

2009. Chevalier, L.R., Miller, M.H., Renzaglia, K.S., Means, J.C., Winters, T.A., “SIUC ADVANCE: Empowerment and Sustainability Initiative in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (ESISTEM).” (I am co-PI). Submitted to the National Science Foundation, $3,989,351. Not funded.

2007. “SIU ADVANCE: Empowerment and Sustainability Initiative in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics” (PI is Jay Means; I am Senior Personnel and co-author of proposal). Submitted to the National Science Foundation, $1,500,807. Not funded.

2006, 2007. “Victim Advocacy for Intimate Partner Violence in the Delta Region” (co-Principal Investigator with Jennifer L. Dunn). Submitted to the National Institute of Justice, $224,869. Not funded.

2006 (and continuation grants in 2007 and 2008). “Project YES” (Principal Investigator is Susanne Ashby, College of Education). My role was the Project Evaluator. Submitted to the Department of Health and Human Services Office of Minority Health. Funded $225,487 (original amount).

2005 (submitted twice). “Town and Gown Violence Prevention Project” (Principal Investigators are Dollean York Anderson and Christy Hamilton). My role on this project is to serve as Project Evaluator (with Professor Amanda Mathias). The proposal was submitted to the U.S. Justice Department’s Violence Against Women Program. $199,996 (initial grant amount). Not funded.

2004. “Rural Center for Violence Against Women.” This non-RAMP proposal was submitted from a collaborative work group led by Jennifer L. Dunn, Sociology, and later merged with a similar proposal from faculty in the Administration of Justice program led by Joseph Schafer. I was a member of the development group for this proposal. Funded $100,000. Our project involved interviewing victim advocates in the 16 county southern region of Illinois.

2002. “Domestic Violence Victim Advocacy: A National Assessment,” (with M. Joan McDermott and Jennifer L. Dunn). Submitted to the National Institute of Justice. $350,691. Not funded.

Submitted to the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. $196,881. Not funded, but proposal ranked in top 20 of 84 submitted proposals.

1999. "UNO Criminal Homicide Study Proposal," (with Cassia Spohn, Denise Herz (co-Principal Investigators) and Phil Secret; I was Research Associate). Submitted to the Nebraska Crime Commission to review cases involving criminal homicide in Nebraska. $190,522. Not funded.

1997. "Assessing a Coordinated Community Effort to Address Responsible Alcohol Service," with Professor Julie Horney. We submitted a letter of intent to the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to assess the impact of a community effort at alcohol prevention. $145,000. Not funded.

1997. "Evaluation of the Gang Prevention through Targeted Outreach Program," (with Finn-Aage Esbensen and Denise Herz (Co-Principal Investigators); I was a Research Associate). This project was to evaluate a gang prevention program, submitted to the Boys and Girls Clubs of America. $194,836. Not funded.

1995. "Nebraska Prevention Needs Assessment." Proposal (which I helped author) was submitted by the Department of Public Institutions of the State of Nebraska to the National Center for Substance Abuse Prevention. $854,000. Not funded.

H. Consultantships/Applied Research

2017. Consulted with colleagues from Engineering at USF regarding their grant proposal on Academic Dishonesty and Ethics in Engineering at USF.

2015- present. I provided grant and research advice and assistance to a junior colleague in WGS.

2015. I consulted with the Associate Dean of the College of Medicine regarding her interest in improving the rates of promotion and tenure for women and minority faculty in the College. This involved consulting on the development of two survey instruments.

2008-2010. I worked with a local food cooperative to supervise a Community Food Assessment. The graduate students I supervised prepared assessment materials and methodologies, conducted volunteer training, and analyzed the results.

2007-2008; 2009. I supervised a member assessment of the Neighborhood Coop from 2007-2008 per the request of the Board of Directors. The assessment was conducted by Kristina Dzara, a PhD student in Sociology at SIUC. As a follow up to this, I met with the Board of the Coop to talk with them about strategies to conduct self-assessments on an ongoing basis.

2006-2010. Evaluator, "Project YES." Project funded by the Office of Minority Health, Department of Health and Human Services, coordinated by a coalition of community actors and university personnel in the College of Education and Human Services.

2005-2007. Researcher and Project Evaluator, "Jackson County Community Court Watch." I worked with the developers of the Court Watch program to design instruments, analyze gathered data, and evaluate the program outcomes.

2004. I participated in research on domestic violence in Bangladesh as part of Kathryn Ward's (Sociology, SIUC) ongoing ALO grant. I traveled to Dhaka, Bangladesh in January 2004 to meet with domestic violence victim advocates, lawyers, shelter organizers, and other interest groups involved in domestic violence response in Dhaka.

2001-2003. Researcher, "Elder Abuse in Jackson County." I worked with the Jackson County Family Violence Task Force to develop a summary report on the status of elder abuse in Jackson County, Illinois.

2000. Project Consultant, "Targeting High-risk Domestic Violence Offenders and Victims: A Researcher-Practitioner Partnership." My role was to work with the Institute for Social and Economic Development and the Omaha Domestic Violence Coalition to assess the feasibility of developing a research proposal to submit to the National Institute of Justice.

1998-2000. Project Consultant, "Polk County Batterer's Education Program Alternative Sanctions Project Evaluation." My role was to develop strategies to improve the access to and quality of victim outcome data.

1998-1999. Informal reviewer of Nebraska research project on the needs of incarcerated women.

1998-1999. "Needs Assessment: Rural Nebraska." Principal Investigator for project with the Nebraska Crime Commission. This study was designed to assess the services offered to victims of crime in two rural communities in Nebraska.

1997-1999. "The National Evaluation of G.R.E.A.T.," Dr. Finn-Aage Esbensen (Principal Investigator). I was Research Associate. I coordinated school-based data collection efforts in two cities (Philadelphia PA and Lincoln NE) and participated in survey design, data analysis, and report development.
